A THANK YOU

Please would you convey my sincere thanks for opening the Museum for us, their fine hospitality and assistance. I had a great day and enjoyed meeting everyone. Having the chance to browse through the archive material and talk to Richard about his collection was a rare privilege. I hope that we will be able to collaborate more closely in future, recording the history of Auxiliary Units and promoting the BRO Museum.

Thanks again

Bill Ashby

Many thanks to all of those associated with the Special day organised for CART. We greatly appreciate the time and effort put in to making our visit so interesting, informative and enjoyable. These things don't happen without some major efforts and we were greatly impressed with the scope and depth of the exhibition and of the quality of the exhibits.

What a great display of weaponry and equipment Richard put on for us. It was truly a privilege to have the demonstrations and learn the details 'straight from the horses mouth'.

Thanks also for the hospitality and the fantastic food. Somebody worked really hard on that to help make our day so enjoyable. Well done and THANKS ALL ROUND. We look forward to developing further contacts and in assisting BROM in whatever way we can.

Many thanks from me for the superb welcome of the CART visit to the BRO Museum at Parham. I was already looking forward to it since my last visit when I helped with an outdoor display at the 2007 veterans event! May I convey my appreciation to all the staff present for their enthusiasm and help with interpreting the exhibits, answering questions and providing archive material in the library reading room for us all. It has increased once more my enthusiasm for this subject. I shall certainly be sending in an application to join the friends of the museum and hope to liaise with the BRO Museum team to be able to come along and actively give some time to help in the archives in the coming year.

I would like to thank everyone who made the visit possible, especially Terry as he was the perfect host! The museum is a focal point for many aspects of the British Resistance that can certainly rank itself amongst the most important record of our modern military history, not to mention the recognition of those who were actively involved; whatever their role was to be. I can fully appreciate the time and dedication applied by a handful of people to keep such a place running.

Many thanks to you all.

Stewart Angell

Thank you so much for our wonderful day spent with you at the museum. It is such an inspiring place to visit and your warm welcome and hospitality made the day truly memorable. It had no idea when I started work with the National Trust at Coleshill and commenced researching the Auxiliary Units, that twenty years later I would still be learning so much.

I know we are all looking forward to welcoming you here at the event in July.

All the very best.

Keith Blaxhall.

Just a line to say thank you very much for having me along on Saturday. It was a fascinating and enjoyable day, as well as a great chance to meet some of the different guys involved with CART and Parham. Best wishes,

Nick Adey

I'd like to thank Terry Broome, Richard Ashley and all the staff at the Museum of the British Resistance Organisation who did a great job in making us feel welcome and letting us walk around both the BRO Museum and the Parham Airfield Museum. A great day out was had by all (and a nice lunch too!).

Peter Antill

It is very rare these days to find a group of people so dedicated to preserving history that they give up weekend after weekend to do so.

Terry Broome and all the volunteer staff at the BROM provided a warm reception to me and other members of CART. Their attention to our needs and requirements was second to none. The food they provided was far better than any other museum I have been to and their regular hard work for the cause would make any Auxilier proud. A great job and a cracking day. Thank you very much.
